In the following statement, the words "I", "me", and "my" mean anyone signing below. "You" and "your" refer to the Bank.

I have given you this financial statement, and attachments, if any, in order to obtain credit or services from you. I understand that you will rely on this information in connection with any decision you make in providing credit or services to me. I warrant and represent to you that this financial statement and any other information I may supply to you is correct and fully and accurately discloses all of my assets and liabilities including, but not limited to, my contingent liabilities, cash income, and cash expenses as of the date I provide this information to you. You may assume that my financial condition is as least as good as shown on this statement until I provide to you another updated financial statement. You may request information about me from others including an investigative consumer report and you may request a consumer credit report about me in connection with this statement for credit or services. If I ask you, you will tell me if a consumer credit report has been requested and will also tell me the name and address of the reporting agency. I understand that knowingly providing false or misleading information in this financial statement is a federal offense that may subject me to fine, imprisonment or both.

Beneficial Ownership Certification

General Instructions

Why are we asking for this information?

To help the government fight financial crime, effective May 11, 2018 Federal regulation requires financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute those crimes.

Who must complete this form?

The following information must be provided by the person opening a new account on behalf of a legal entity. For this form, a legal entity includes corporations, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by filing a public document with the Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country. Legal entity does not include sole proprietorships, unincorporated associations, or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

What information do I have to provide?

The regulation requires you to provide the name, address, date of birth and Social Security number (or passport number or other similar information, in the case of foreign persons) for the following individuals (i.e., the beneficial owners):

- (i) Each individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25% or more of the equity interest of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person that owns 25% or more of the shares of a corporation); and
- (ii) An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., CEO, CFO, COO, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).

The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of "beneficial owner" may vary. Under section (i), depending on the factual circumstances, up to four individuals (but as few as zero) may need to be identified. Regardless of the number of individuals identified under section (i), you must provide identifying information of one individual under section (ii). It is possible that in some circumstances the same individual might be identified under both sections. Thus, a completed for will contain the identifying information of at least one individual (under section (ii), and up to five individuals (i.e., one individual under section (ii) and four 25% equity holders under section (i)). The financial institution may also ask to see a copy of a driver's license or other identifying document for each beneficial owner listed on this form.
